SAMPLING TEXAS

As we witness the financial turmoil of New York City and a new wave of gay harassment now occurring in selected spots along the west coast, there comes a certain sense of appreciation and pride in being part of the Texas gay community. Who'd ever thought a few years ago that Texas would be the "place to be." But evidently it's true, because gays from all over the country are flocking into the Lone Star state by the carloads, van loads, or by thumb, when necessary. And This Week in Texas welcomes them all . . .

One needs only to look at Houston to discern the new "shape of things to come." Never before has a massive gay community emerged so beautifully from the "closet" and encountered such a warm welcome. It appears Houston gays have not only learned to work hard and play hard — but have also managed to get it "totally together." Witness the strides made by the newly-formed Houston Gay Political Caucus. Following massive organization and voter registration drives, the Houston gay community is apparently in the unique position of holding a major power block in the upcoming runoff for the election of the mayor. Such that, the gay vote is being courted openly and proudly by incumbent mayor Fred Hofheinz, the endorsed candidate by the GPC. This Week in Texas joins the GPC in urging you to vote. This is the time. It is in our hands. Our community has grown and flourished under the Hofheinz' leadership. Let's keep the ball rolling. Even if you didn't vote first time around, you can vote in the runoff. Failure to do so could result in the fatal election of a man who says all those "clever" things like, "A killer executed will never kill again." Ugghhhhh! . . . Incidentally, if you don't have Thanksgiving plans, the GPC will hold a Thanksgiving Day Banquet at Lydia's, at 805 Pacific Street, from 1:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. All proceeds go to continue the fine work of the GPC. They deserve your support. And so does Mayor Hofheinz. Vote December 2nd. Vote!! . . .

But, as I said earlier, Houston gays are not only working together in unparalleled strides, they are also "playing" together with that same sense of community, and the Houston gay entertainment scene now rivals that of any city outside the state. The just-concluded Houston Motorcycle Club Leather Carnival brought universal agreement that never before ANYWHERE had such an event been staged and presented in such an elaborate manner. The thousands who thronged there were literally "floored" by the extensive decor and entertainment accomplishments. It was the flashiest, gaudiest, tackiest, biggest, most decadent sex spectacular all had ever seen. It put Houston in a new entertainment league. As did the continuing artistic displays being presented at the Depository. The recent showcase, Craig Russell, really wow-ed 'em! . . .

And there seems to be no end to the Houston vibrancy. The new Old Plantation Club is slated to open on December 4th, where the production of Godspell will hit the boards on December 10th and 11th. And what a show that's going to be! The Miss Gay America Contest, with prize money totalling almost $5,000.00 will be held at the Old Plantation on December 5th. . . . Returning to the topic of Godspell, for just a moment. You know your gay community has hit the big time when the "straight" press will be on hand to herald the arrival of a gay-produced show. But sure enough, when Godspell

On his visit to America in 1975, Monsignor Von Kluedigger found the ladies in the Plantation Room charming. Then he found they were men.

Everything has its place, and your place is 2710 Albany, Houston. Open 7pm nightly til 2, plus after hours Friday and Saturday for your rock & roll pleasure using BOSE 901 speakers and 1801 amplifiers exclusively. Divine shows Wednesday and Sunday in the Plantation Room. Amateur night Monday. $1.25 beer bust 7pm-midnight Sunday for your thirst. For your pocketbook, no cover weeknights. Owner Gene Howle and manager Wayne Barton welcome you home to the Farmhouse.

holds its press preview on December 3rd, the major papers will be there, in addition to previews of the show on the "Nancy Ames Show" on the NBC affiliate in Houston, as well as show previews and commercials on Houston television stations. In the gay sphere, show previews will be held at the Farmhouse on December 5th and the Inside-Outside on December 6th. Yes sir, the Houston gay community is ripping the closet door off its hinges, and even the "straight" community seems delighted. Hubba-hubba . . . Speaking of the Inside-Outside, that bar now joins Dirty Sally's in opening at the wee hour of 7:00 a.m. in the morning. Billy Holland serves at the Inside-Outside "Good Morning" greeter and bartender. We'll never know how he manages to get his eyes open that wide, that early — but he does . . .

The Briar Patch has a new manager, the ever-popular Crazy Charlie Clark. That should add a dash of spice to the sparked Houston gay scene. And as a final note to the Houston Happening's '75, Billy Duncan's Adam's Image presents the "TNT Review" with Tiffany Jones, Eartha Kitt and Torchy Lane, on Friday, November 28th at 9:00 p.m. Hurry and get down there. Step on it! . . . Elsewhere around the state, the Fort Worth Community News has now merged with the Dallas-based gay newspaper, The Channel. The Community News will maintain editorial control functions, while the Channel staff will place emphasis on the advertising, production and subscription aspects of the new joint venture. First issue under the new format will be out in a few weeks. Set that type, kids . . . John McDonald, president of the Waco Heart of Texas Motorcycle Club, has announced a Toys for Tots Drive by that organization. All toy collections will be made at the Other End. Such projects really go a long, long way toward gay acceptance in all communities. Keep up the good work, John . . . Local artists in San Antonio can now get their works screened at the Habitat, as art show emphasis finds a home in that location. Fine pieces of artwork will also be part of a future promotional effort at the Habitat . . . A Call received from Glenn Hall in Dallas has informed This Week in Texas that Mr. Hall's renowned photography expertise has now set up shop in Big "D." For those of you who have been waiting for Hall to open his doors for YOU, you can reach him at (214) 233-4362. . . . A novel approach has emerged in Galveston for bar-goers. The Kon-Tiki Wahine now features "Tommy" nights on Tuesdays, with lots of pinball and the crowning of a "Pin Ball Wizard" at the end of each pinball tourney. Similar occurrences also come on Thursdays, with the game switching from pinball to pool. Cue up! . . . And finally, please know that wherever you are in the state, something BIG is probably happening nearby. Check the ads in this edition for the Weekly Specials nearest you. The advertisers have you in mind. So get out there! Ring them bells! Live it up! DO IT! See ya next week.

SKYLINES

SKYLINES: Your General Horoscope for December

ARIES (March 21—April 19): You're put under a romantic spell. Business ventures are accented this month, and you take steps to further your career.

TAURUS (April 20—May 20): The sense of ease you enjoyed with friends through November is continued with the advent of the holidays, when you will take pleasure with relatives and loved ones like you never have before.

GEMINI (May 21—June 20): Entertaining in your home, something for which you may not have previously had time, is not only possible, but successful and rewarding this month. You are better able to take care of yourself in health and business.

CANCER (June 21—July 22): As with other signs in December, you'll get a great deal of comfort and security from family, friends and home. Artistic interests of last month are still strong. Creative ability on an emotional level is high.

LEO (July 23—August 22): Worried about your health? Rightly so, but most of your problems can be solved by a better diet and personal hygiene.

VIRGO (August 23—September 22): Plans in business and career are temporarily disrupted. You work hard and devote much to projects at hand. Improvement in finances come late in the month.

LIBRA (September 23—October 23): Home improvements and decorating fill up the leisure hours and ease your nerves. You begin to research ways of making more money. Thoughts turn to home.

SCORPIO (October 24—November 21): You are looking good and impress new acquaintances quite favorably. Occult subjects continue to interest, and you begin to participate in as well as research hidden subjects and practices. Your imagination is at its zenith for the year.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22—December 21): You remember old lovers and friends; thoughts to turn the past relative to the present, and you act on the companions. Exercise caution in money-related matters.

CAPRICORN (December 22—January 19): In the second week of December you're likely to meet a new lover. Confidence and strong will on your part make good impressions on others.

AQUARIUS (January 20—February 18): You work to improve your own financial picture through the coming year. Your unusually sharp wit and airy outlook makes you the life of the party.

PISCES (February 19—March 20): December opens doors and you continue action to better your social position, increase financial and emotional security. You may plan a large purchase of property or assets later in the month. Spend time with the improvement of homelife and domestic activities.

by Robert Fenn and Jeff Newbold

Another month, another review. If anyone asks, the hottest song of the month is Baby Face by Consumer Rapport. The disco upbeat of the long time Broadway hit is really packing the dance floors.

Following at the heels of Summer of '42 is Summer Place '76, Percy Faith's disco update of this 1960 classic Theme from a Summer Place. Keep the faith.

Off their new LP Higher than High, the Undisputed Truth have two hits playing in area discos: Higher Than High and Boogie Bump Boogie, and they are just that.

Gloria Gaynor's new release off her LP Experience: a shorter version of How High the Moon, the flip side being one of her mellower numbers, My Man's Gone.

On the first time around, Rusty Wier makes his disco debut with Don't It Make You Want to Dance. Also, instant success Donna Summer has her first fine disco disc, Love to Love You Baby. Her LP of the same name includes seventeen good minutes of this very orgasmic song.

PERSONAL NOTE: Many thanks and good wishes go out to Houston dj Bill "Fishwoman" Lewallen, leaving the Farmhouse for New York. Fishwoman will be giving us the scoop on the Fun City disco scene in the near future.
