MAY DAY FOR MIAMI

Mary's and several other Houston Gay businesses will host May Madness in Memorial Park for Miami at 3pm Sunday, May 22. There will be a beer bust with all sorts of entertainment activities from volleyball to kite flying. Donations will be asked in this final push to raise funds for the Dade County Coalition for Human Rights. The referendum is June 2 and the Coalition still needs money to fund its media blitz. Chances for a gay victory are good - but if we lose in Miami, we lose throughout the country.

NEW DALLAS BAR

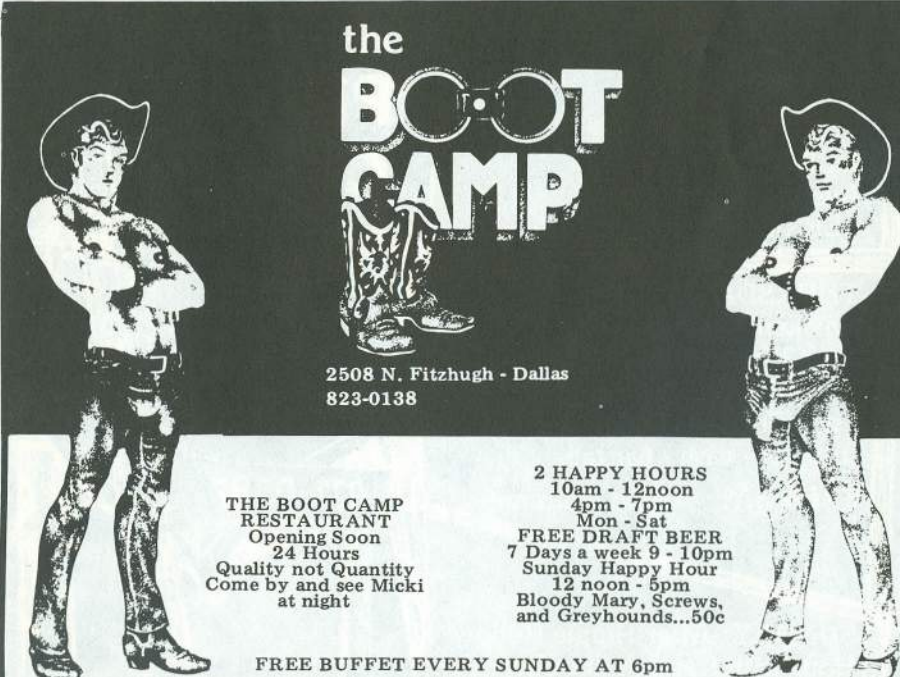

WHAT'S NEW is literally what's new in Dallas. Jim Augustine and Wayne Sumners, formerly of Terry's RANch, have opened a new Levi-bar across from the Old Plantation. The new watering hole features a cruisey inside bar and a sunny outdoor patio.

BULLS AND CHIMPS

The Club Dallas' annual Splash Day and Mr. Taurus Contest turned into a packed zoo Sunday, May 15. The breakfast and luncheon buffet were culinary delights. Nine hunky Taurans and one female chimpanzee entered the Mr. Taurus Contest. While six foot, blond Dwight Gordon won accolades from the judges as Mr. Taurus, the chimp's disappearing towel act won the crowd's hearts.

AUNTIE MAME'S OPENS

Houston's newest eatery Auntie Mame's is now open, reports owners Paul and Jerry of the Briar Patch. The restaurant is located in the shopping center at 2278 W. Holcombe and is open from 7am til 5pm. Hours will be extended later after a grand opening celebration coming up soon. Mame has bee a long time coming, but her delicious food is worth the wait.

SEND A KISS TO DADE COUNTY

Sunday, May 22 from 6-9pm, Houston's Silver Bullet Saloon will host a kissing booth as a benefit for the Dade County Coalition for Human Rights (the Anti-Anita forces). It's a buck a smooch with all proceeds going directly to Dade County. So go on over and kiss a bullet. You might even get a surprise.

If kissing's not your bag, the Inside/Outside gives you a chance on Saturday night (May 21) from 8:30-11 to gamble your fortune away to Dade County at one of Jeff's now infamous Las Vegas Casino Parties.

COLORSHUNGATPRIVATECELLAR

Saturday, May 14, Austin's Private Cellar hosted nearly 200 visitors from all around the state who had come to welcome the Heart of Texas Motorcycle Club to its new home. Representatives from the Dallas, Houston, Battalion, Tejas, Houston Eagle, and Rough Riders MC's, and from the Colt 45's Club, were

TERRACE TRAVEL/DALLAS

Roger Pillsbury of Houston's Terrace Travel has announced the formal opening of their Dallas office June 1. The office will serve the travel needs of the metroplex from 710 Westminster Building at European Crossroads.

OP DALLAS ENTERS SECOND YEAR

It seems like there's always been an Old Plantation in Dallas, but actually the club is only one year old. This past Wednesday, Ernestine, Jennifer, Jessica and Janet made the Houston to Dallas trek for the super anniversary party and show. TWT wishes continued good luck to the OP Dallas in their second year.

Week of May 21 - 27

FOR ALL SIGNS: We remain under the influence of last Tuesday's New Moon (May 17) through the remainder of the month, so last week's Starscope still applies. Meanwhile, as you observe the Moon getting bigger every night in the spring sky, it's still a fine time to start any new projects. That New Moon is in Cancer this weekend, in Leo Monday, and in Virgo Wednesday.

GEMINI (May 21 -- June 21): Week in a word: Moody. Love: flirtatious. Cruising: he needs variety. Travel: Fidgety. Friends: likes to talk and gossip. Note: can charm you today and fool you tomorrow.

CANCER (June 22 -- July 23): Week in a word: Friends. Love: sensitive. Cruising: compliment him. Travel: doesn't want to drive and takes along food and drink. Friends: invites you over for coffee. Note: Wants to take you to his place but you'll have to suggest it.

LEO (July 24 -- August 23): Week in a word: Job. Love: very outgoing. Cruising: appeal to his ego. Travel: goes fast. Friends: macho handshake and big smile. Note: Being a leader, he decides the bedroom scene.

VIRGO (August 24 -- September 23): Week in a word: Travel. Love: mysterious. Cruising: tell him you need help. Travel: stops often. Friends: offers much advice. Note: Cleanliness is next to sexiness.

LIBRA (September 24 -- October 23): Week in a word: Secrets. Love: music and candlelight. Cruising: suggest cuddling. Travel: too busy talking to see where he's going. Friends: He'll pour his heart out. Note: he's a lover not a fighter, functions best with a partner.

SCORPIO (October 24 -- November 22): Week in a word: Partnership. Love: lots of sex. Cruising: touching and a mysterious glance. Travel: rude honker. Friends: gossips, loves intrigue, solving secrets, but never lets you down. Note: confuses sex with love, big sex drive.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 - December 22): Week in a word: Appearance. Love: seldom marries but very sincere when he does. Cruising: be butch and sporty. Travel: dead forward with no stops. Friends: cheers you up with a joke. Note: he'll hurt you, then kiss you.

CAPRICORN (December 23 - January 19): Week in a word: Love affair. Love: faithful. Cruising: You'll have to make the first move. Travel: worries about a wreck. Friends: extremely comforting in crisis. Note: don't kid him or he'll leave early.

AQUARIUS (January 20 -- February 19): Week in a word: Home. Love: unpredictably hard to handle. Cruising: you'll have to get past his friends. Travel: late and unorganized and stops often. Friends: many. Note: sometimes you'll think he thinks more of his friends than of you.

PISCES (February 20 -- March 20): Week in a word: Communication. Love: very deep. Cruising: make him feel sorry for you. Travel: doesn't like long tiring trips. Friends: a good listener to talk to. Note: gets down and moody, but it always passes without your help.

ARIES (March 21 -- April 20): Week in a word: Money. Love: impulsive. Cruising: play hard to get. Travel: ready to go instantly. Friends: immediate help even if it isn't right. Note: he'll make a mistake, say he's sorry, then do it again.

TAURUS (April 21 -- May 20): Week in a word: Personality. Love: very trustful. Cruising: invite him to a part or a dinner. Travel: very planned ahead of time. Friends: best listener to pour your problems on to. Note: his persistence is mistaken for stubbornness.

Life With Vera

by John Gardner

"Can I offer you some coffee? How about some hot tea?" Vera asked.

"No. I don't want anything. Just tell me what's happened to Burt!" Zachary insisted. "You got me over here, so tell me what's going on."

"How about a mint julep?" Vera asked.

"If you're not going to tell me your secret, I'm going to leave," Zach declared as he paced Vera's living room.

"Okay, okay, I'll tell you. The secret is frosting the glasses beforehand. A good mint julep has got to..."

"No! Not about mint juleps! About Burt. All I want to know is what's happened to Burt."

"Very well," Vera sighed. "But I'm holding you personally responsible for keeping the South from rising again."

"Just the facts!" Zach bellowed.

"Very well, Zach," Vera began. "What if I were to tell you Burt had been in a horrible auto accident and his face was all torn up. Scarred for life. Everything above his neck looked like it belonged alongside a box of Hamburger Helper. That would make this silly argument ya'll have been having seem pretty unimportant, wouldn't it?"

"Burt's been in an accident?"

"It's a terrible thought, isn't it?"

"Burt's been in an accident?" Zach repeated.

"No. But it's a terrible thought, isn't it?"

"Ah-Ha! I get it. This is all a trick!" Zach said. "You thought you could get me over here and then sweet-talk me into patching everything up with Burt. I'm going home."

"Please, Zach! Come back. Just for a minute," Vera pleaded. "Okay, I confess. I did trick you. But for your own good. You must listen to what I've got to say."

"I'm going home," Zach muttered, heading for the door.

"Okay, go ahead. My mistake. I thought you loved Burt," Vera assailed.

 "What's that got to do with it?"
 "Well if you really loved Burt you'd be willing to spare a few minutes of your precious time if it might salvage the relationship between the two of you."
 "Shit! Oh, all right. Give it to me. What words of wonder are you going to lay on me that will suddenly make everything okay between me and Burt?"
 "He told them," Vera announced.
 "He told what? What did he tell? To who? Who?"
 "Calm down, dear. You sound like an owl. Burt told his parents that he is in love with you."
 "You're lying!" Zach snorted.
 "Child, you cut me to the quick. Look at this face. Do I look like the sort of person that would tell you a lie?"
 "In a flash!" Zachary retorted.
 "I knew that Deep Magic wasn't doing a thing for my face," Vera sighed. "I've got to have a long talk with my Avon lady. But you're wrong. He did tell them. He knew it was what you wanted. He resigned himself to the reality that he had fallen in love with a gay-lib radical—and if it meant keeping your love—it was a sacrifice he would have to make. And he did."
 "How do I know you're telling the truth?"
 "You'll just have to take my word for it. Since you've already insulted my face."

"Why didn't Burt tell me?"

"How could he? You ran off. If I didn't know every Nancy Drew mystery by heart, I wouldn't have been able to have found you, either."

"How did his parents take the news?"

"How do you think? His father shit a Twinkie. And his mother spent a day and a half talking to Anita Bryant long-distance asking for advice."

"How did Burt react?"

"Seemed to take it all in stride," Vera explained. "The experience has matured him a lot. He's grown up since you saw him last. His folks left town in a huff and now he's settled down into living his own life. 'Cept for the ringing of his telephone. Every two hours he gets a call from Florida. A recording of gospel music. I never knew Mahalia Jackson had that many hits!"

"I feel like an ass hole," Zach cringed.

"Well don't look at me, honey. If that's what you're in the mood for, I think you ought to go see Burt. He's your lover."

"You're right. I've got to go," Zach soared, hastily rushing toward the door.

"Oh, Vera. Thank you. Thank you."

Zach sped from the house, planting a big kiss on Vera's cheek as he passed.

"Oh, my, my," Vera swooned. "I should pry into people's lives more often."

And if Zach departed Vera's house in haste, it was easily matched by Phoebe's haste entering Vera's house.

"Phoebe?" Vera probed. "Whatever brings you over here on this most lovely of May days?"

"Ahhhhhhhh!" Phoebe screamed, speeding past Vera at the front door.

"I feel very good, thank you. And how are you?"

"Ahhhhhhhh!" Phoebe repeated, trudging through the living room.

"Good, good," Vera acknowledged. "Can I offer you some coffee? How about some hot tea?"

"Ahhhhhhhh!" Phoebe continued, locking himself in the downstairs bathroom with a brutal slamming of the bathroom door.

"Perhaps I'm making too much of this," Vera sighed. "But I have the feeling that Phoebe has a problem."

The wait was long but worth it for the opening of the Locker's patio and forts (above, behind the Genderfuc). On the right Tiger demonstrates her technique at her new tattoo parlor at the Locker.

Below, Levi's traditional Wednesday night steak dinner and weekend beer busts are always hopping, and the new Maple Ranch Wear western boutique is fast becoming one of Houston's friendliest places to shop.
