GROOVELINES

by DJ Chris Allen

iTunes

Over at iTunes, and hot for digital download, is the outstanding new full-length album from hit maker David Guetta – One Love. We all got a taste of what was to come over the summer as the singles were released one by one. Each one making ya want more. It started with When Love Takes Over featuring Kelly Rowland. That track quickly became the most requested hit of the summer. One that will go down in history and be heard for years to come. Then came Sexy Bitch with Akon, Getting' Over with Chris Willis, and I Wanna Go Crazy with will.i.am from the Black Eyed Peas. It was pretty damn obvious that something huge was on the way. Gotta say, this is huge. What an album. With One Love, David Guetta holds nothing back. It is an ambitious, ingeniously crafted album that sets forth nothing less than a bold and beautiful manifesto for the global pop and dance audience. Teaming up with an incredible lineup of A-listers – every song on this album has the potential to be a huge hit for both the radio and the dance floor.

"Making this record with so many talented artists was such an amazing experience and the end result is an album infused with all the best flavors of contemporary pop music that will appeal to such a broad audience both on and off the dance floor," says the genius behind this delicious piece of ear candy.

One Love's all-star lineup is made up of Kelly Rowland, Ne-Yo, Akon, Chris Willis, Estelle, will.i.am, Novel, Kid Cudi, and Apl De Ap. There is also a very cute remix of the Black Eyed Peas hit I Got A Feeling thrown in. Highlights on One Love include Memories, Missing You, and It's The Way You Love Me. David Guetta's name is synonymous with the world's greatest house and dance music, and the parties that bring that music to life. Since releasing his first pioneering single Up 1 Way in his native Paris, France in 1992, David Guetta has sold over 2 million albums world wide and over 3.2 million singles. Shit man, I bet he's got a super phat crib. Experience all you can online at www.davidguetta.com and purchase your copy of One Love at iTunes. It'll make your iPod very, very happy. Promise.

Other noteworthy releases this week include Celebration by Madonna – the Benny Benassi mix, Down by Jay Sean, Manos Al Aire by Tiesto and Nelly Furtado, the full length album He Was King from Felix Da Housecat, and the amazingly priced new compilation, Toolroom Records Presents Ibiza 09 – 35 tracks from various artists and 3 hour long dj sets for only $9.99. Great stuff. You'll find those floor fillers and more online at iTunes.

You can hear me play these mentioned hits and more every week at South Beach & Meteor in Houston and at Halo in Bryan/College Station. Be sure to tune into Hypersonic Radio every Saturday night at 10 pm on 101X in Austin or stream it live on the web at www.hypersonicradio.com.

Catch me spinning live and in person at the Rusty Spurs in Austin this Saturday, September 5th – Labor Day Weekend. That show will be broadcast online from 10 til 2 at www.stickam.com/djchrisallen for those of you that can't make it. Also, mark your calendars for October 24th when I will be joined by 80's pop star Tiffany, Jay Arseno, American Idol finalist Kady Malloy, and my good pal Toddicus on the main stage at this year's Galveston Pride festival.

For more info on these and all other upcoming DJ C.A. events and happenings head on over to www.djca.us. Stalk my every move at twitter.com/groovelines, Loopt, MySpace, and Facebook.

A quick reminder for all of you electronic and dance music acts and producers who have product available to purchase online - send me your disc or press kit for review, via USPS, to 115 N Main, Bryan, Texas, 77803. You can also e mail a download link to djca.groovelines@yahoo.com. If it kicks ass then I'll let the world know. Let me have it Texas! Send me your best. I dare you.

Deep in the heart of Texas, that is the Groovelines for now. You know the golden rule boys and girls - play it loud and disturb the neighbors! The scene can only grow and thrive if we participate in it folks. It exists because we make it so. Be active, support your local talent. Buy, don't share.

Remember, life might not always be the party you had hoped for, but while you're here you might as well dance.

Martini The Movie

"Martini the Movie" is a musical comedy short film from Robert L. Camina, which has been traveling to film festivals around the country to great acclaim, ever since its debut in January 2009. Fort Worth's QCinema named it the Best Comedic Short Film (Men's) in May 2009. TWT caught up with Robert shortly before his trip to Austin where "Martini the Movie" will screen as part of aGLIFF (the Austin Gay and Lesbian International Film Festival).

For those "Martini" virgins who have not seen the film, what is the premise of your movie?

"Martini the Movie" is an original comedy musical short about Martini Glass, the legendary actress of Hollywood's Golden Age. Set in the present, the story follows Martini as she prepares to audition for the comeback role of a lifetime. Along the way, cocktail in hand, she dishes the Tinseltown dirt with a flourish! Her fame is fading, and she is left to question whether her star will ever shine brightly again! The movie is filled with hot shirtless hunks, sassy one liners and a toe-tappin' showtune that is certain to leave you shaken and stirred!

"Martini" is definitely over the top, great, campy fun!! What inspired you to make it?

The screenplay is primarily based on the stand-up comedy of Steven Jay Crabtree. I first became aware of Steven and his comedy in 1999, when I attended Steven's hilarious one man show at the Pocket Sandwich Theater in Dallas. When I started directing movies, I kept going back to the idea of adapting one of his legendary characters, Martini Glass, for a short film. I approached him with the idea and then told him I also wanted make it a musical!! Steven enthusiastically agreed, and the rest, as they say, is history.

Your cast has so many talented people in it. Anybody you would particularly like to mention or spill some dirt on? It's ok. TWT readers can keep secrets. Uh huh...

Steven was simply amazing!!! I pushed him far out of his comfort zone, but he kept things light hearted, entertaining the set when the cameras weren't rolling. I knew from the moment I started writing the script that I wanted Denise Lee as Martini's Assistant. She is wonderfully talented, with recent screen credits including Friday Night Lights, Prison Break and the film Mad Money with Queen Latifah. I was thrilled that her schedule allowed her to be in the film. While I knew she would be fantastic, she brought so much to the character that I wasn't expecting. Martini's Assistant has very few lines, but some of the loudest laughs come as a result of Denise's facial expressions and body language. I cannot imagine the film without her.

Dirt huh? Lean in close...I have a story for ya: There are two sex scenes in the movie. One gay and one straight. I don't want to go into much detail and spoil the scenes, but I have to say, that was one helluva production day! Directing sex scenes was new to me. I'm a pretty shy person, and to direct the actors on where to put their body parts, resulted in a very red-faced Robert. I was also trying to be very polite and respectful of the actors' boundaries. It became clear quickly, that the niceties had to go, and in the end, let's just say I think ChiChi LaRue would have been proud. Ha! Ha!

The musical number is incredibly catchy and witty and is so intricate to the story. What was the creative process like developing it?

I'm eternally grateful to Brent Black, the composer/co-lyricist. He's a recent graduate from NYU, with a Master's Degree in Musical Theater Writing, who learned of the film while it was still in development. He did a phenomenal job writing this song, exceeding all my expectations!

The song's hook, "Martini Glass, Exclamation Point... in Lights!" comes from a line in Steven's show. It was crucial to push the film's plot along through the song, (think "Fame" or "Austin Powers"), involving barricades and off duty police officers. You can imagine my stress level. Luckily, we were able to get our shots between the brief stints of heavy drizzle. However, as soon as I called "that's a wrap", the sky opened up and it started to pour.

What are you focusing your creative talents on next?

I have several projects in the works, including two feature length films. This includes the documentary currently entitled, "Raid of the Rainbow Lounge". The film documents the events following the controversial raid of the Fort Worth gay bar on June 28th by the T.A.B.C. and Fort Worth police, and its impact on the victims, the Fort Worth community and the world. The event resulted in multiple arrests and injuries.

What's on my wish list? I'd love to direct and produce an original full length musical film. I'm keeping my eyes and ears open for opportunities.

while remaining true to its comedic roots. I thought this hook provided that opportunity. It still amazes me that we wrote this song through phone calls and emails (since he was living in NYC). We only met in person once, for about two hours, when he was visiting Ardmore, Oklahoma.

I'm sure production days were long and things didn't always go as planned. Can you share a few amusing stories or behind-the-scenes memories?

LOL! The weekend we were set to film the entire musical number was the weekend Hurricane Ike hit the coast, resulting in thunderstorms across Texas. During the hours leading up to the Saturday morning shoot, I was constantly monitoring the weather websites, each forecasting vastly different times the rain was supposed to hit. We had scheduled a street closure for a dancing in the street scene

Thank you Robert. Have a wonderful time in Austin!

TEA

AUSTIN

Normally on our quest for club tea in Austin we generally start out side the 4th street venues and work our way in. Not the case this time gurlies, we just had to go get the "what's up?" from Bobby Cook and what in holy hot hell is going to happen for Last Splash. As sure as sugar he told us about the Big Gay Brunch on the 5th that is being sponsored by all the community go getters and covered by this here very rag. He also wanted everyone to know in no way is anything canceled and the party will rage on as always at the Lake on the 6th of September. So, look forward to having a great time at the lake as Bobby Cook and his posse plan to pull off stellar things weather it be on the lake or ashore, and if no one shows and you find you're self all alone in the bushes and rocks. You can catch Bobby Cook's fine lil butt at Rain on 4th every Thursday as he entertains the masses with his Armature Strip Show. Be full warned, he does have one hell of a crew as Jason and Tom always make sure that there is no bad vibes going down inside of Rain.

Like we have said time and time again, you step out of Rain and turn right, wave to the gay hating peeps over at Qua, and you'll find your self on the front stoop of OCH. As tradition would have it, Oilcan Harry's has always turned out a fabulous party for Last Splash and this year is no different. The Can will play host this year for the Last Splash Kick Off Party with DJ wiz Tony Moran. As we wandered the club we could see already Ashton and Jason were in the mood for Last Splash as they were stripped down for service on the patio, drink service that is. A few short paces away we found the shot boy Matthew with nothing but his suspenders and a tray of delicious somethings. It is evident here at OCH that this weekend is going to be wet and wild and chalked to the gills with hot bois in next to nothing. Speaking of next to nothing, The Student Body Strip Off is back on Thursdays with your fine as brandy wine host Brandon.

We now stroll up to 5th and punch opens the doors to RCC and finds our self in the middle of some rootin tootin good times. The gang of the Rainbow Cattle Co. always is very friendly and the crowds there are just as nice. Just check out Brian, Lupe, Javi, Pedro and David! The Lone Star Bears are hosting their Last Splash party this Friday at RCC and have the ever so hot DJ Kurt JD blow out the tunes. This should offer ya'll better times than dunkin for twinks in a barrel.

With lassoes in hand we rope up one of the finest bicycle cabbies in ATX and tell him "YAW! on to The Rusty Spurs YAW!" as we dismount our sexy cabbie, we mean get out of the cab. We stroll into the 3 in 1 Location that is The Rusty Spurs, Emerald City, and Colors. Front and centered with the most of pleased grins of TGRA delight, we find Bob and Brenda giving our camera some face. The final kick off party on August 30th was a blast as Weldon Henson crooned to the crowd as they recuperated from the Saturday night lube wrestling event. Last weekends TGRA parties were a hoot. The party on the patio as well continues every Sunday at the Spur with Beef and $1 Beer.

Full from the Beef and Beer we go on down to Charlie's to hang with Army and who should we bump in to but the owner of OCH Rick Wadley hanging out with Jame Perry, Big Chris, Mark S. who was celebrating his B-day, David Green, and Young Gun from the Man Watch crew. As the night progresses we partied down with some of the hottest young studs as the masses let back in for college. You catch some wonderful shows all week long over at Charlie's and when there is nothing going on, on stage you can be sure there is something going on in the kitchen. Charlie's is surely the place for gay tasty treats in Austin.

DALLAS

We just love athletic men! We love athletic supporters, too! So we became one of the waterboys as Woody's softball team stepped up to the plate to support AIDS Arms' LifeWalk and participated in their waterballoon dodgeball extravaganza behind S4 called "Waterpalooza". 3 shots from that.

They placed 3rd but were fun to get wet with and it was a for a good cause.

Recently we attended the sexy reunion at The Brick. Pictured are Purple Party board members and DJ extraordinaire Paul Kraft. This was hoo-rah for the old building which was leveled last week. Stay tuned for the launch of the new club. We excitedly look forward to them opening their doors to the studs in Dallas!

BJ's opening was wonderful. Our bestest camera guy in Big "D", Brett attended the soiree and captured Richard, Bam Bam and ooh soo sexy Garrett along with Virgil and his entourage of Stallions! With Men like these hanging out at BJ's, we definitely will be slurping cocktails and ogling the hotties whenever possible! Also, we have been late in running our image of the handsome and lovely, Leon and Melissa Grove, the Executive Director at Legacy Counseling (for HIV community) and Legacy Cottage (AIDS hospice).

Finally, RUSH titillated our dearest friend Whitney Paige into a tizzy with the 2nd Anniversary Party with porn stud Trevor Knight. Pictured on our very next page, you will see images of his "meat and greet" at Midtowne Spa and then his raucous, ribald routine at Rush!

HOUSTON

As reported the last couple of Tea's from Houston, we unleashed Isaac and Glenn from Austin upon the unsuspecting residents and boy did they have some fun! We are still sorting through the images of hot, handsome and hunky gayfolk!

Our first stop with the dynamic duo was at JR's where Adam, Josh, and former cover person for TWT Houston Pride, Crystal took time to pose for them. Jr's is home to an upcoming Male U Wear fashion event, which ALWAYS brings out the best in everyone. Showing their best at JR's that night were Kenan and Javier of Muscles in Action, yummy!

Over at the coolest place on earth, South Beach, Isaac and Glenn were mesmerized by the bouncing buttocks of Billy who was sporting a particularly attractive pair of undies. As you can see the front view was just as pleasing as the rear, causing Isaac to exclaim 'Aye, Mira!' and start snapping the camera feverishly! This week's Military Ball with DJ Bill Bennet will be part of the celebration for Labor Day at SoBe. Don your best Military drag and stop by Meteor to join in on the festivities.

Bubbalicious will be onstage at Meteor with mens in the Meteor Showers this weekend, and we are fairly certain DJ Chris Allen will be back in time from his Splash appearance in Austin to spin the latest for you to get your Those Meteor Showers holiday groove going to sure capture some handsome men, and trumormongers do state that Ms. Kofi got nearly nekkid herself for a splash splash in the moisture! Just ask Brian cause he witnessed it all! Actually, had we been there at that particular moment.. we arent sure if Kofi moistening her towelette or Brian would have held our attention more! Aye Mira!

Finally, what is a trip to Space City without dropping in on Black Hawk leather. Oscar posed with some of the wares while Glenn picked out a little something that he MAY or MAY NOT have tried out before leaving the emporium. Leaving with some new thought on holiday gifts, it is never to early to start shopping for the holidays, the guys were seen gingerly sitting into the seats of their vehicle. Tender tushes? Only Oscar and maybe a Daddy at the Ricord will know for certain!

SAN ANTONIO

Our first stop on Main this week was at the new digs now know as The Silver Dollar. In this, bigger than science, sized bar, played host to a benefit for, Assistant Manager Paul Rubio. In an unfortunate accident Paul's apartment went up in flames and the show cast of SD and his friends all pulled together to help him out.. We caught up with Mr. Drag Idol, Daemon, Autumn Summers, and the lovely Tencha during the show. Not to mention that others were there to show their support like Kiana Lord and a bevy of hot studs wrapped in tight wranglers to dish out funds galore to get Paul back on his feet. If that was not enough, right off the dance floor Peter was blowin flames and setting the night on fire. Paul approached TWT in the parking lot after the event, and wanted everyone to know that he is filled with nothing but joy and gratitude for having such wonderful friends. Silver Dollar sure has grown into "it new britches" quite nicely. Be on the look out for more fabulous parties to be held in the near future at SD.

Over a couple blocks, still on Main we hurry into to the Saint after the benefit to get some drag benefit of our own. Anytime this diva of the south comes too the Saint you can already count on TWT to be in the mix. The one and only Tommie Ross, once again took the stage by storm and dazzled the crowds and served it up as only she can. Speaking of serving it up, if you ever had the urge to say "you've just been served", then gig your ass out on Wednesday nights to the Saint for their So You Think You Can Dance Contest hosted by Jenny McCall, and win some cash and compete for the monthly dance off prize of $300.

Right across the street the peeps over at Heat nightclub are also dancing and carrying on as they prepare for the Black and Light Party that will be held on September 12th with special guest DJ Blaine. With free glow toys at the door and fierce tunes floatin through the air, it is a guaranteed that the boards will be danced off the floor this night. In the mean time DJs Rick and

CeCe will be holding down the masses with their skillful music play.

To close out the fun of the week we like to take time and make sure the folks over at Beat Aids stay well inform with new TWT's, as John Barbo also keeps us informed about the latest happenings. Such be the case of the Disco Ball being held at the Saint. Keep a watchful eye on our Best Bets pages for further details of when this discotastic party hits the floor.
